Dear Ms. Hemney:

I refuse to be a guinea pig for the vast genetic engineering experiment that the Food and Drug Administration is proposing.

I don't need genetically engineered food, I don't want it, and I don't trust the industry whores who attest to its safety.

The FDA should concentrate on cleaning up the mess that has been caused by its support of questionable and downright harmful additives now in our food supply.

Time and time again, the FDA has served the profits of big food industry. It has done a poor job of protecting consumers.

Angrily yours,

Sidney Goodman
